2019/2020

Nomination Guidelines

Nomination Period
8.7.2019 - 4.10.2019

Recognising Teaching Excellence Fostering Professional Development

Nomination Guidelines

I Foreword

Since the launch of the Chief Executive's Award for Teaching Excellence (CEATE), over 900 outstanding teachers have been awarded in different themes and they have also received community-wide recognition for their achievements. CEATE (2019/2020) is the first CEATE of the fourth round and covers three themes: Chinese Language Education Key Learning Area (KLA), Liberal Studies, and Moral and Civic Education. Teachers' participation in CEATE is the key of its success. Teachers are encouraged to participate in CEATE (2019/2020).

II Objectives

CEATE symbolises the awarded teachers' excellent efforts and dedicated commitment. It aims to:

- (a) recognise accomplished teachers who demonstrate exemplary teaching practices;
- (b) enhance the professional image and the social status of teachers, thereby gaining society's recognition of the teaching profession and fostering a culture of respect for teachers;
- (c) pool together accomplished teachers through the CEATE Teachers' Association to facilitate sharing of good practices; and
- (d) foster a culture of excellence in the teaching profession.

III Eligibility

3.1 Both individual and group nominations are accepted. The following teachers are eligible for nomination in CEATE (2019/2020):

- (a) Chinese Language Education KLA
Teachers of primary, secondary and special schools who teach subjects under the Chinese Language Education KLA¹;
- (b) Liberal Studies
Teachers of secondary and special schools who teach Liberal Studies at the senior secondary level; and
- (c) Moral and Civic Education
Teachers of kindergartens², primary, secondary and special schools who are involved in the teaching, planning and implementation of Moral and Civic Education related curricula/ programmes/ learning activities³.

3.2 Nominees should meet the following criteria:

- (a) Nominees should be registered under the Education Ordinance, Cap. 279 (except those who are exempted under Section 9(1)(a) of the Ordinance) as Registered Teachers. The Education Bureau will examine if the nominees meet this criterion based on the internal records;

¹ These include those teachers teaching Chinese Language for non-Chinese speaking students.

² These also include kindergarten-cum-child care centres and schools with kindergarten classes.

³ Moral and Civic Education related curricula/ programmes/ learning activities include Life Education, Moral Education, Personal Growth, Moral and Civic Education, Service Learning, Field Study and Exchange, Learning Activities for Promoting Respect of Cultural Diversity and Integration, etc.

- (b) Nominees should teach the subject(s) [for nominees under paragraph 3.1(a) and (b)] or have been involved in Moral and Civic Education [for nominees under paragraph 3.1(c)] in or before the 2018/19 school year and will continue to do so in the 2019/20 school year; and
- (c) Immediately before the close of nomination, nominees should have at least three consecutive years of teaching experience in local schools which offer a formal curriculum. For group nominations, at least half of the members of the group should meet this criterion.

3.3 Teachers who were awarded in the previous CEATEs may also be nominated if they meet the above criteria. However, only teaching practices which are substantially different from the practices awarded in previous CEATEs to the same nominee(s) would be considered for any award.

3.4 Teachers who are not permanent residents of Hong Kong can be nominated if they meet the criteria stated in paragraph 3.2.

3.5 Principals are not eligible for nomination.

3.6 The Education Bureau has the sole discretion in determining the eligibility of nominees.

IV Awards

4.1 There is no pre-set limit to the number of awards to be given out. There are two kinds of awards:

(a) Award for Teaching Excellence

Nominees who have demonstrated excellence holistically in the four domains of assessment, namely Professional Competence; Student Development; Professionalism and Commitment to the Community and School Development, will be presented with the Award for Teaching Excellence.

(b) Certificate of Merit

Nominees who have demonstrated a standard very close to excellence in the four domains will be presented with the Certificate of Merit.

4.2 Nominations presented with the Award for Teaching Excellence or the Certificate of Merit will receive the following prizes:

Item	Nomination presented with the Award for Teaching Excellence		Nomination presented with the Certificate of Merit
	Individual Nomination	Group Nomination ⁴	Individual Nomination	Group Nomination ⁴
(a) Cash Award	$20,000	$40,000	$12,000	$24,000
(b) Dissemination and Continuing Professional Development Grant	$60,000	$80,000	$36,000	$48,000
(c) Trophy and Certificate	(i) A trophy for nominations presented with the Award for Teaching Excellence (ii) A certificate for nominations presented with the Certificate of Merit (iii) A personal trophy and a certificate for each awarded teacher

4.3 Nominators of the nominations presented with the Award for Teaching Excellence and the Certificate of Merit will receive book coupons in the value of $2,800 and $1,600 respectively.

4.4 Removal of an awardee's status⁵ will be considered if:

- (a) his/ her teacher registration has been cancelled by the Education Bureau; or
- (b) he/ she has received reprimand letter from the Education Bureau.

Each case will be recommended by the Education Bureau for the CEATE Steering Committee's acceptance.

⁴ For awarded group nominations, each group has to decide on the share of the items (a) and (b) apportioned to each group member.

⁵ Circumstance (a) is applicable to all awarded teachers since the 2003/04 school year whereas circumstance (b) is applicable to awarded teachers since the 2015/16 school year.

V Dissemination Activities of the Awarded Teachers

- 5.1 Awarded teachers are required to provide articles accompanied by photos and teaching materials that are relevant to the awarded teaching practices for use in the CEATE Compendium which will be published in July 2020.
- 5.2 Awarded teachers will automatically become members of the CEATE Teachers' Association. They are required to participate in professional development activities organised by the Education Bureau and the CEATE Teachers' Association to share their teaching practices with their fellow teachers. These activities include:
- (a) Conducting one sharing session in the CEATE Showcase which will be held in late 2020; and
 - (b) Arranging at least one demonstration lesson in the 2020/21 school year for observation by other teachers.
- 5.3 Awarded teachers should participate in or organise other dissemination and sharing activities according to the dissemination plans submitted together with the nominations to foster a culture of professional collaboration and excellence. The Education Bureau will provide suitable assistance.

VI Nomination

6.1 Nomination period

Nominations will be accepted from 8 July 2019 to 4 October 2019.

6.2 Nominators

- (a) Each nomination should be made by one nominator in his or her personal capacity. Self-nomination is also accepted.
- (b) Nominators should be school heads, colleagues of the nominees, peers or experienced educators.
- (c) Nominators have to obtain prior consent from the nominees before making nominations.

6.3 Nominees

- (a) Nominees are required to describe their philosophy of teaching and what constitutes excellence in Chinese Language Education KLA, Liberal Studies or Moral and Civic Education to reflect on their teaching practices. Nominees are also required to give an account of their teaching practices, how these practices are implemented and their effectiveness. Nominees should cite examples for illustration.
- (b) Each nominee can be nominated once only at each CEATE, irrespective of individual or group nomination.

6.4 Seconders

- (a) Each nomination (including self-nomination) should be seconded by two to three persons in their personal capacity.
- (b) Seconders should be school heads, colleagues of the nominees, peers, experienced educators, students (including former students) or parents.

6.5 Group nominations

- (a) Each group should comprise not more than five teachers, and select among themselves a group leader. If a teaching practice has been developed by a group of more than five teachers, the group has to decide among themselves who the “core members” or “representatives” are.
- (b) Contribution of each group member, interaction in the group, and how efforts of the group have contributed to the desired outcomes of the teaching practices will need to be explained. The professional competence of each and every group member and the overall performance of the group in its entirety will be taken into account when considering whether the group will be recommended for the Award for Teaching Excellence or the Certificate of Merit.

6.6 School heads

The school heads of the nominees should either be the nominators or the seconders of the nominations. The school heads are encouraged to support their teachers, if awarded, to organise and participate in post-award dissemination and sharing activities within one year after being awarded.

6.7 Colleagues, students, parents

Nominees may incorporate the views of their colleagues, their students and/ or parents of their students in the nominations. Also, the Assessment Panel may interview colleagues, students, parents etc. during school visits in detailed assessment for a more thorough understanding of the nominees' teaching practices.

6.8 Souvenir

All nominators and nominees will each receive a souvenir.

VII Nomination Materials to be Submitted

7.1 Nomination Form

The Nomination Form is separately provided on the CEATE website (www.ate.gov.hk). Nominators and nominees should read the Nomination Guidelines carefully before filling in the Nomination Form. Nominators and nominees may browse the CEATE website for more information.

7.2 Reflection of Teaching Practices

Nominees should describe the following in “Reflection of Teaching Practices” and the total number of pages of its content should not be more than 10 pages. It should be typed in font 12 points or above (Times New Roman for English and 細明體 for Chinese) and printed on both sides of A4 paper. The word file concerned should be saved in “doc” or “docx” format in a DVD/CD and submitted together with the printed copy of the document.

- (a) A reflection of their teaching practices and their philosophy of teaching or conceptual framework of what constitutes excellence in Chinese Language Education KLA, Liberal Studies or Moral and Civic Education.
- (b) Relevant examples and details to illustrate the outcomes and effect in respect of the four domains of assessment as set out in paragraph 9.2 of the Nomination Guidelines. Nominees may refer to the Appendix (Reference Questions for Preparing Nominations).
- (c) What teaching practices they will disseminate and how they will take forward their dissemination, if awarded.
- (d) For group nominations, the reflection of teaching practices should represent the group as a whole, describe clearly the contribution of each group member to the teaching practices, particularly those who do not have three or more consecutive years of teaching experience in local schools.

7.3 Video clip

Submit one video-recorded lesson (30-45 minutes) of the nominee/ group representative which should be an authentic, continuous lesson without editing to demonstrate the teaching practices. For nominations under Moral and Civic Education, nominees may alternatively submit authentic video clips (30-45 minutes) of teaching, curriculum, a learning programme or activity (crucial parts only) together with one-page outline contained in one DVD/CD. The video recordings in “avi”, “wmv”, “mpeg”, “mpg” or “mp4” format and the one-page lesson outline should be saved in the DVD/CD mentioned in paragraph 7.2.

7.4 Year Plan or Teaching Schedule

Submit the year plan/ teaching schedule of the previous school year (2018/19) on the themes relevant to the nominations to give background information to the Assessment Panel. This information should be stored in the same DVD/CD mentioned in paragraph 7.2.

7.5 Supplementary Information

Append, if necessary, supplementary information such as curriculum plans and learning activity records, to help describe the teaching practices. All the supplementary information (up to a maximum of 50 pages in a single file) together with an index page should be stored in the DVD/CD mentioned in paragraph 7.2.

Note

- (a) Nomination information may be prepared in either Chinese or English.
- (b) Nominees, nominators and seconders have to sign on the original copy of the nomination documents.
- (c) The prescribed format and maximum number of pages allowed should be strictly followed. Non-complying nominations will not be considered.
- (d) Information on paragraphs 7.2 - 7.5 should be stored in the same DVD/CD and submitted together with the Nomination Form and the reflection of teaching practices.
- (e) Be prepared that the Assessment Panel may request the submission of more detailed information as evidence when necessary.

VIII Submission of Nomination

- 8.1 The completed Nomination Forms, the reflection of teaching practices and the DVDs/CDs (which contain reflection of teaching practices, video clip and lesson outline, year plan/ teaching schedule of 2018/19 school year, supplementary information and its index page, if any) should be submitted in triplicate (including the original), in person or by post, to the Chief Executive's Award for Teaching Excellence Secretariat at Room 1107, 11/F., Wu Chung House, 213 Queen's Road East, Wan Chai, Hong Kong on or before 4 October 2019. For nominations submitted by post, date of the stamp chop will be used as the submission date.
- 8.2 Nominations will not be considered if the submitted nomination materials fail to comply with the requirements as stated in Part VII.

IX Assessment Mechanism

9.1 What is “teaching excellence”?

For the purpose of CEATE, “teaching excellence” means excellence in implementing “teaching practice” which refers to the learning experiences provided by a teacher that facilitate the learning of students as a result of the teacher's professional knowledge and skills in lesson planning, teaching pedagogy, curriculum and assessment design, adaptation of materials, etc. Teaching practices are considered excellent if they are:

- (a) outstanding and/ or innovative and proven to be effective in enhancing students' motivation and/ or in helping students to achieve the desired learning outcomes; or creatively adapted from exemplary teaching practices from elsewhere to suit the local (i.e. school-based and/ or student-based) context, with proven effectiveness in enhancing students' learning outcomes;
- (b) based on a coherent conceptual framework, showing reflective practices;
- (c) inspiring and can be shared with colleagues to improve the quality of education; and
- (d) instrumental in achieving the learning targets of the themes concerned.
 - For Chinese Language Education KLA, the learning target means developing students' language competence to enable them to attain a comprehensive and balanced development in knowledge accumulation, skills acquisition, and nurturing of good attitude and habit through the nine learning strands: Reading, Writing, Listening, Speaking, Literature, Chinese Culture, Moral and Affective Development, Thinking and Independent Language Learning.
 - For Liberal Studies, the learning target means enabling students to better understand themselves, their society, their nation, the human world and the physical environment; to develop multiple perspectives on perennial and contemporary issues in different contexts; to become independent thinkers so that they can construct knowledge appropriate to changing personal and social circumstances; to develop a range of skills for life-long learning; to appreciate and respect diversity in cultures and views in a pluralistic society and handle conflicting values; and to develop positive values and attitudes towards life so that they become informed and responsible citizens of society, the country and the world.
 - For Moral and Civic Education, the learning target means developing students' positive values and attitudes when dealing with personal and social issues; cultivating virtues and enhancing students' civic awareness to make rational and sensible value judgement; and nurturing a sense of identity and commitment to the society and the nation.

9.2 Domains of Assessment

Assessment of nominations will focus on four domains of assessment, namely Professional Competence, Student Development, Professionalism and Commitment to the Community, and School Development. As teaching practices cannot be separated into discrete areas, when assessing the nominations, the Assessment Panels will adopt a holistic approach with a focus on learning and teaching.

(a) Professional Competence

Evidence of exemplary practices in professional competence may include but is not limited to

- (i) mastery of subject/ professional knowledge, skills and communication ability;
- (ii) effectively combine education/ learning theories and teaching practices;
- (iii) setting appropriate learning objectives for lessons in accordance with the learning targets of the theme, as well as effective organisation and planning of teaching to ensure students' attainment of the learning targets;
- (iv) developing appropriate teaching strategies and using suitable teaching skills to suit the diversified needs of different students, the context and environment;
- (v) effective classroom instruction, class interaction, class management and/ or implementation strategies of programmes/ projects/ activities;
- (vi) adopting a student-centred teaching strategy, designing learning activities that are related to the daily lives of students, providing students with various learning experiences, enabling students to scaffold their knowledge and establishing positive values and attitudes; and
- (vii) effective assessment of student learning, and appropriate use of assessment information.

(b) Student Development

Evidence of exemplary practices in student development may include but is not limited to

- (i) catering for school-based or student-oriented needs by appropriate adaptation of the curriculum to help students attain the desired learning outcomes;
- (ii) inspiring students of different backgrounds and abilities and motivating them to learn;
- (iii) making positive impacts on students' whole-person development and development of generic skills;
- (iv) providing pastoral care services and student activities; and
- (v) building trust and rapport with students.

(c) Professionalism and Commitment to the Community

Evidence of exemplary practices in professionalism and commitment to the community may include but is not limited to

- (i) the drive to pursue continuous self-improvement and professional development;
- (ii) keeping themselves abreast of developments in education practices and policies, for example, the trends and content of the curriculum;
- (iii) serving as role models;
- (iv) proactively providing support to the teaching profession and the community, such as participation in and contribution to professional sharing activities, dissemination of good practices, and involvement in community services or voluntary work;
- (v) producing exemplary teaching materials, involving in or contributing to educational research, and/ or publishing of articles on teaching-related topics; and
- (vi) participating in the professional development of novice teachers.

(d) School Development

Evidence of exemplary practices in school development may include but is not limited to

- (i) encouraging home-school collaboration;
- (ii) inspiring and providing support to colleagues for improvement of learning and teaching;
- (iii) promoting a sharing and collaborative culture among colleagues and stakeholders with a view to developing the school as a professional learning community; and
- (iv) taking a leadership role among colleagues and stakeholders in promoting a consensus on and the actualisation of the school vision and mission through one's own exemplary practices and sharing of experience, focusing energy on achieving continuous school development, and realising the essence of the school culture and ethos through a variety of effective channels.

9.3 Excellence Indicators

The respective Excellence Indicators of the three themes will be compiled for use as reference in assessing nominations and will be available on the CEATE website in late 2019. The Excellence Indicators will include the corresponding examples of excellence of the four domains mentioned above.

X Assessment Procedures

Initial Assessment

(To be conducted tentatively in November & December 2019)

- Vetting and examining materials submitted with the nominations
- Interviewing nominees (The interview is compulsory in nature. For group nominations, the presence of one or two representative(s) will suffice.)
- Short-listing nominators for detailed assessment

Detailed Assessment⁶

(To be conducted tentatively in January & February 2020)

- Conducting school visits which include observation of lessons (For group nominations, the lessons of all group members will be observed.)
- Interviewing nominees, colleagues, students, parents, etc.
- Examining more evidence from nominees

Recommendation by the CEATE Assessment Panels

Discussion by the CEATE Assessment Working Group

Acceptance by the CEATE Steering Committee

Endorsement by the CEATE High-level Advisory Panel

⁶ Nominees will receive notification of school visit by late February 2020 if they are short-listed for detailed assessment. Nominees who are unable to make themselves available for detailed assessment will be treated as withdrawals.

XI CEATE Assessment Panels

- 11.1 Three Assessment Panels, each comprising experts and academics in the respective theme, experienced school heads, CEATE awarded teachers and a parent, will be set up to assess the nominations and recommend the ones to be awarded. The assessment results will be submitted to the CEATE Assessment Working Group for discussion, and to CEATE Steering Committee for acceptance. They will then be verified and endorsed by the CEATE High-level Advisory Panel, whose decision is final.
- 11.2 Information on members of the CEATE Assessment Panels will be available on the CEATE website.

XII Handling of Information

- 12.1 All information provided for the assessment of nominations will be treated in confidence. Nomination Forms and supporting materials submitted will not be returned. For nominations that are awarded, all information provided for the purpose of assessment may be used, distributed, disseminated, published and/ or reproduced for the purpose of disseminating good teaching practices by the Education Bureau or any organisations or agents appointed or authorised by it. Information related to other nominations will be destroyed within two months after the Award Presentation Ceremony.
- 12.2 The relevant personal data (e.g. names of nominees, nominators and seconders) provided in the Nomination Form may be disclosed to public sector schools, Direct Subsidy Scheme schools or private schools, other education institutions or organisations and other related persons or bodies, including their authorised agents or representatives for the same purpose mentioned above.
- 12.3 Personal data provided in the Nomination Form and supporting materials will be handled according to the provisions stated in Section IV of the Nomination Form.

XIII Declaration of Interests

All persons involved in the processing and assessment of nominations, including members of the CEATE Secretariat and the Assessment Panels, will be required to declare interests prior to working on any cases. The decision of the Education Bureau with regard to matters related to conflict of interests will be final.

XIV Enquiries

- 14.1 For enquiries, please call 2892 5782 or e-mail to ate@edb.gov.hk.
- 14.2 Adhering to the principle of confidentiality and fairness, once the assessment procedures have started, the CEATE Secretariat will not respond to any enquiries regarding the decision of the assessment until the assessment results have been announced publicly in mid-2020.
